You Sleep in Our Bed...

During the months of April and May, we continue to visit churches and attend the LWML zone's rallies and District Pastoral Conferences in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Texas Districts. The Lord led us to meet with many wonderful congregations, pastors and church members. Their faith and generosity humbled us and encouraged us to continue our effort of seeking more partners to support the Lord's work in Southeast Asia. Recently, we visited a church in South Minnesota District and the church arranged for us to stay overnight with a family of the congregation. After the church service on Saturday evening we showed up at the couple's house. They have four grown children with two of them still living with the couple. When we walked in, the couple warmly welcomed us to their home and directed us to put our things in the bedroom on the first floor next to the dining room by saying, "This is where you will sleep tonight". As we were putting our things in the bedroom, we noticed that the bedroom does not seem like a guest bedroom, but rather it is someone's bedroom. After we put our things in the bedroom we sat down in their dining room and chatted with the couple and their children about family and ministry until 10:30 pm. After we prayed and got ready to go to sleep, it seemed like the couple was not heading to any bedroom to go sleep. Fung asked the couple, "Where are you two going to sleep?" The wife responded, "We will sleep on the couches," and pointing to the living room. "Where is your bedroom?" Fung asked. "You are sleeping in our bedroom," says the wife. "You mean we are sleeping on your bed tonight?" Fung asked. "Yes, you are sleeping in our bed," says the wife. At that point, we were surprised, embarrassed and humbled all at the same time. We were surprised that the couple actually gave up their bedroom for us to sleep in. We were embarrassed that they actually let us sleep in their bed while they slept on the couches in the living room. We were humbled because given that the couple has no extra bedroom to host us, they could have said no to hosting us and yet they graciously were hosting us by giving us their bedroom and bed to sleep in. No one has ever done anything like this for us. In our opinions, the couple gave all that they have to support the Lord's work through His servants. We are humbled beyond any words that we could express by what the couple has done for us. The only thing that we could do was to thank them for their love for the Lord Jesus Christ and the generosity they had shown to His servants. To the couple, Mike and Melissa Denzer of St. Martin Lutheran Church in Winona, MN, we would like to echo the Apostle Paul's words to them, "We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of your love for all the saints" (Colossians 1:3-4).
