

Serving the Lord's people at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Memphis, Tennessee

It Is More Blessed to Give Than to Receive

During the month of July, Fung continued to travel and visit churches in Nashville and Memphis, Tennessee. During his traveling, Fung got to witness the love of Christ to many individuals along the way. At two different occasions, Fung purchased gas for two individuals that needed gas for their vehicles. During Fung's interactions with them, he learned that both individuals were Christians. After Fung purchased gas for them, Fung thought to himself, "Did they trick me to buy gas for them, or did they really need help. Whatever their motives were, they certainly will never get rich by conning people. However, Fung felt rich with love for them." This is why the scripture says, "It more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). In some ways, our family also in similar situation as those men that needed help. That is why Fung was traveling to visit and speaking at churches to ask for their financial support for the Lord's work in Southeast Asia. We pray and hope that you felt rich and blessed when you gave to the Lord's work through our family. As the Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians in Corinth, "We put no stumbling block in anyone's path, so that our ministry will not be discredited. Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships and distresses; in beatings, imprisonments and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger; in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; through glory and dishonor, bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors; known, yet regarded as unknown; dying, and yet we live on; beaten, and yet not killed; sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, and yet possessing everything" (2 Corinthians 6:3-10). This is the life of our family and that of many foreign missionaries. Therefore, we appreciate your partnership in the Gospel. We are inviting you to participate in our second matching fund campaign. One of our supporters will match dollar-per-dollar up to $14,000 until the end of September. This way, your financial gifts will be doubled. Please send your matching dollars to Mission of Christ Network, and earmark it to "Lo Family—Matching Fund".
